POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

AMENDMENTS TO APARTMENT HOUSE MAIL RECEPTACLE REGULATIONS

SEPTEMBER 15, 1936.

The instructions appearing in the Postal Bulletin issue, April 14, 1936, under the caption "Apartment House Mail Receptacles", amending Article 11 of the Department's apartment house mail receptacle regulations and instructions pamphlet by the addition of paragraph 2, are hereby revoked.

Articles 10 and 11 of the apartment house mail receptacle regulations are amended as follows:

Article 10 is cancelled and the following Article 10 substituted therefor:

Mail receptacles shall be satisfactorily numbered or lettered (preferably the former) in numerical or alphabetical sequence from left to right so as to enable the carrier to expeditiously deliver the mail. A receptacle should be provided for the delivery of mail to the resident manager, if any, and the janitor.

Article 11 is amended by the addition of the following paragraphs:

In all apartment houses where there are twenty-five or more receptacles, a complete alphabetical directory of all persons receiving mail shall be maintained and kept corrected to date. Where the receptacle number and apartment number are the same, the number shall appear to the left of the name and when the apartment number is different from the number on the receptacle, this number shall also appear to the right of the name. The same arrangement shall be followed where apartments and receptacles are either lettered or lettered and numbered.

The directory shall be prepared by the use of large legible type, suitably framed and attached to the wall immediately above or to the side of the mail receptacles. No particular style of frame is required. In all cases where an attendant, such as telephone operator, doorman or elevator conductor, is on duty between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 11:00 p. m. and mail is delivered to either approved apartment house mail receptacles or in bulk for distribution by employees of the building, the directory may be kept in the custody of the employee on duty in the building so that it may be available for use by the carrier or special delivery messenger on request.

Where an apartment house is divided into units with separate entrances and twenty-five or more receptacles are installed to the unit, a separate directory shall be provided for each unit. In addition, where mail is not generally addressed to the specific units, a directory shall be kept at the main unit of the apartment, listing all persons receiving mail in the various units.
